Axiata Young Talent Programme
Nurturing the corporate leaders of tomorrow

Axiata is one of Asia's largest telecommunication companies with revenues exceeding RM17 billion. At Axiata, we believe that nation building begins with nurturing young, talented individuals. The Axiata Young Talent Programme (AYTP) is our unique leadership development initiative for young Malaysians as early as 13 years old to provide them with the essential values, attitudes and skills needed to be world-class corporate leaders.

The National Secondary School Leadership Development Programme
Offered to all Form 1 students at Kolej Yayasan Saad Melaka in conjunction with their extra-curricular syllabus.

The National Secondary School Scholarship (Full / Partial*)
Open to all students who have proven excellent Ujian Penilaian Sekolah Rendah (UPSR) results and outstanding achievements in extra-curricular activities. The scholarship covers five years of secondary school education, subject to Axiata Foundation's terms and conditions at Kolej Yayasan Saad. It includes school fees, text books, school uniforms and a laptop. A non-curriculum fund will also be provided to encourage student participation in school based extra-curricular activities.

*Full / Partial scholarship is subject to eligibility and household income
Subject to terms and conditions

Applications for the National Secondary School Scholarship for Form 1 intake are now open from 19 August to 3 September 2013
